National Memorial (outside visit , 15 mins) → Old Town Alexandria (40 mins) → Mount Vernon Plantation (Optional, 120 mins) → ArtechHouse (Optional, 60 mins)

Special Notes: ArtechHouse will be a 10-day transition period for each theme exhibitions change, during which this attraction will not be visited.

The George Washington University

The George Washington University (GW or GWU) is a private research university in Washington, D.C. It was chartered in 1821 by an act of the United States Congress. George Washington alumni, faculty and affiliates include numerous prominent politicians, including 16 heads of state or government, current U.S. Cabinet members, Fortune 500 CEOs, Nobel laureates, MacArthur fellows, Olympic athletes, Academy Award and Golden Globe winners, royalty, and Time 100 notables.

The Pentagon

The Pentagon is the headquarters building of the United States Department of Defense. Located in Arlington County, Virginia, across the Potomac River from Washington, D.C., the building was designed by American architect George Bergstrom and built by contractor John McShain. Ground was broken on September 11, 1941. The Pentagon is the world's largest office building, five sides, five floors above ground, two basement levels, and five ring corridors per floor. The Pentagon is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and is a National Historic Landmark.

Old Town Alexandria

Located just minutes from Washington, D.C. on the Potomac River waterfront and named a Top 3 Best Small City in the U.S. 2019 by the Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards, the #1 Best Value U.S. Travel Destination 2018 by Money magazine, and one of the South's Prettiest Cities 2018 by Southern Living, Alexandria delights travelers from all over the world. A nationally designated historic district founded in 1749 that George Washington called home, Old Town Alexandria hums with more than 200 independent restaurants and boutiques alongside intimate historic museums and new happenings at the waterfront. Old Town's cobblestone streets and red brick sidewalks attracts everyone from presidents to pet lovers. At the heart of it all is bustling King Street, a walkable mile recognized as one of the "Great Streets" of America.

Mount Vernon Plantation

Mount Vernon is the former home of George Washington. Washington was a revolutionary war hero, Founding Father, and the first president of the United States. His former estate has been turned into a museum that examines his life.
